

CHIEF ENOLOGIST: MANUEL GONZALEZ

Mendoza-born, passionate oenologist Manuel González is our Chief Winemaker. Over the past 20 years he has forged his reputation at a number of the top Mendoza wine estates, receiving guidance from top oenologists such as Alberto Antonini, Paul Hobbs y Michel Rolland.

Manuel is a scholar of the Gualtallary area and considers it a sub region with great potential.

A combination of frequent visits to the Napa Valley as well as several wine regions has given him a broad perspective on wine production, evident in the numerous international recognitions his wines have received. Beside wine, his other passion is writing and Manuel draws his inspiration from the land itself, the wine it produces, the people work it as well as his own roots, all of which feature centrally in his texts.
